Dear Mr. Trudeau:

Apparently the Obama administration is set to start on another agenda item: immigration reform.

According to the NY Times, the President will be speaking in May with the intention of beginning debate in the fall. In a meeting March 18, he said, immigrants “have to have some mechanisms over time to get out of the shadows.”

I hope that we can find a way to help our veterans get out from their shadows as well.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. Blaschko
President, Idyll Arbor

p.s. Faces of Combat, PTSD & TBI by Eric Newhouse talks about the shadows and offers some ways out. We will continue to let people know about what is going on until the problem is solved.

Tom
